<About the Dentsu Advertising Awards>

The Dentsu Advertising Awards were established in 1947 for the purpose of raising the standard of advertising planning and creativity in Japan. Awards are presented to advertisers who have contributed to progress in the advertising field by conducting superior planning and employing superior techniques in their advertising work during the previous year. The awards are referred to as the "Grand Prix" of Japan's advertising industry, and it is said that "the history of the Dentsu Advertising Awards is the history of postwar Japanese advertising creativity."

Selections are made by the Dentsu Advertising Awards Screening Committee, an independent nationwide organization chaired by Mr. Takashi Imai. The Screening Committee, which currently has 497 members from various regions of Japan, primarily comprises advertisers, media executives, producers and prominent members of the academic, business and cultural communities.
