Dentsu Donates Funds to Support Earthquake Relief Efforts in Nepal

Dentsu Inc. (Tokyo: 4324; ISIN: JP3551520004; President & CEO: Tadashi Ishii; Head Office: Tokyo; Capital: 74,609.81 million yen) announced today that it will donate relief funds totaling three million yen in order to provide immediate assistance to the victims of the large earthquake that occurred in central Nepal on April 25, and help rebuild the damaged areas. The funds will be donated through the Japan Platform non-profit organization and the National Federation of UNESCO Associations in Japan, both of which are carrying out support activities.

Dentsu would like to extend its deepest condolences to the people of Nepal and the earthquake victims, and its sincere prayers for the speedy reconstruction of the affected regions.
